Marriage. Lord help us to remember when we first met and the strong love that grew between us. Help us love in practical ways so that nothing can divide us. May our words be kind and our thoughts gracious. May we remain humble enough to ask for forgiveness and wise enough to freely give.

Broken Chain. We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our Family Chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again. - Ron Tranmer

Bless this House. Bless this house dear Lord above, with happiness and with Thy love. Bless the door that opens wide, to warmth that waits inside. Touch the windows with Thy light, be its comfort in the night. Grant it peace and sweet accord. Make this house Thy home dear Lord.

Marriage is a Promise.

A marriage is a promise that two hearts gladly make; a promise to be tender, to help, to give and take. A marriage is a promise to be kind and understanding, to be thoughtful and considerate, fair and undemanding. A marriage is a promise to share one life together...a love filled promise meant to be kept lovingly forever.

The Dash Between.

I stood there at the headstone of one I love, and cried. Name, with dates of birth and death, so neatly were inscribed. The thought came quickly to my mind, these years leave much unseen. Far more meaningful to me is the dash which lies between. The years within that little dash live on in memory, and represent the precious life of one who's dear to me...

The Last Supper. The Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; and said, "Take, eat...do this in remembrance of Me." He also took the cup...saying, "This cup is the new covenant...do...in remembrance of Me." I Cor. 11:23-25

3513: The Greatest Parents on Earth. I will never take for granted how greatly I've been blessed; For when it comes to parents, mom and dad, you are the best. You nurtured and protected me and taught me with great care. And every time I've needed you, you were always there. If you could look into my heart how quickly you would see, the special place you hold there, and how much you mean to me. May you receive the blessings you are so deserving of for your caring, and your sharing, and each sacrifice of love. And may you carry in your hearts these words forever true NO parents anywhere on earth could be more loved than you. © Ron Tranmer

3570: Broken Chain. We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our Family Chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again. © Ron Tranmer
